Newsmax.com

what a joke.

Just printing this kind of trash on their web site shows they wish to create discord among Americans.

Blah Blah....

I have better things to do then read this trash.

Got any Free Porno links?

NewsMax may well be a joke - but then again, so might the Washington Post, Jennings, ABC...

IMHO, even when one sees what may appear to be biased reporting, one should also realize they may be seeing something they should know... even if the knowledge is painful enough to want to blame the messenger for the message.

It was bisaed analysis, not reporting. NewsMax is well-known for this. See Falwell/Robertson for more "analysis".

Yeah, I gotta admit, R/C & rev' are right (or was that monsterette using the wrong name again? ). I've got NewsCrackx on my favorites, but I only use it when I want a good laugh, or something to remind me what shoddy journalism looks like.

And HELL YEAH!! Pass around the porn!!

My bad, I shouldn't have said 'reporting' - I was speaking of any media bias, whether it be from less respected sources, or even some more reputable outlets. Now I do know, & accept, that NewsMax gives obviously biased analysis on the news... I'll even go beyond what Spike Mike said, NewsMax could very well give 'shoddy journalism' a bad name!

My point was, despite obvious bias, even NewsMax may provide some info one might not otherwise know - that is, so long as one can see past the bias, & separate 'analysis' from actual news... not always an easy task, even with some more reputable media outlets at times!

Newsmax has more integrity then all the broadcast networks.

I have been reading the site for years and most of the breaking news stories start on that site.

Go ahead and listen to Dan Blather and he will lead you down the path to disinformation.
