Hi Patty, you are too kind, You can drop the Sir....title as I am just one of you, a truth seeker! 😊 Welcome to the Hyper-Dimensional FAN-tastic Forum.

I must share the praise with our Founder and CEO Linnea, who is also responsible for much of the creative content on the site. Please look for new editions to this site coming soon!!!

Yippee!!!! Look - we've broken 100 registered users!!! I think the numbers alone are an indicator that this forum is just what the doctor ordered for all of us disinfranchised Art Bell riders.

I think this day should be noted with a big HOORAY on the home page of this website.

Congrats to Revisedcode and Linnea for all their hard work and dedication! You guys rock!

Also, all those who have come here to join us in this forum are to be saluted for recognizing quality and true open-mindedness when you see it!

The old bbs appears to be dying a slow, painful death. There are maybe 2 or 3 new posts per day now. Should make KR's life less stressful, unless he's deleting all but the 2 or 3 posts per day that are appearing.

Anyway, I think this is a red letter day for this website and this forum!

AND IT'S ONLY JUST BEGUN. I remember one of the early posts here that said "If you build it, they will come." And, they have!

Yes, Carol, Demian and Linnea deserve to be congratulated for their achievement. They HAVE built it, and they ARE coming.

But as is always the case in the fairy tale, the happy ending turns out to be but the problematic start to the next phase of the story. Demian and Linnea may --- or may not ---- well come to understand the truth of the old Chinese proverb: "It is better to travel hopefully than to arrive." And they may --- or may not --- learn that Oscar Wilde was right: "The only thing worse than not getting what you want is --- getting what you want." We will see...

In any case, congratulations, Demian and Linnea... You deserve them for what you have done.

Regards, always,

Joe Quinn
