The software let you modify pictures on your computer screen with your mind. Thanks. In case you don't know, FF will be going back to the old version and this post will be lost. You may want to repost it after tomorrow, if all goes well. Marcia ----- "Eschew obfuscation." --Mark Twain ;-) Posts: 330   From: &gt;&gt;Southeast   Joined the Crew: May 2000   IP: Logged

Linnea -

It is called (Encounters?) ShapeChanger... I bought the program and used it until I crashed my computer one day. When I re-installed the program I got a message that said this, "This trial version of ShapeChanger is no longer accessible." and it would no longer accept my Unlock Code. I may have screwed up my number when I copied it - I'm not sure - but I'm usually very careful about those things.

Under Purchase Instructions there is an 800 number (800) 873-5614. I called that number to see if I could get my Unlock Code and they said they no longer had a connection with the company that produced the program (Pear Inc.). It must be at least two years ago since I called.

I've tried in the past to get a 'crack'  for the program, but no such luck.

Here is a link for the program (2.16MB) if you want to run it till it expires... If anyone else would like 'ShapeChanger' you are welcome to it. I would be very pleased if someone could supply a code generator for this program!

Let me know if it runs OK for you.
