Art was on 3830 this morning. Sounded really miserable - recovering from a bad bout with the flu. Ramona was even more ill. High fevers - general body aches - sniffles - all this, and following having flu shots!

Kinda makes you wonder what they put in those flu shots. 🤔

Real tough break!
Hope they are soon on the mend.

Art said he may be on the air tomorrow - but doesn't think he could do 5 hours.

Couldn't resist the topic. My heart goes out to Art and Ramona. It sounds like a very nasty bout of Flu. Since I'm an Old RN, I often wonder about the Flu shots. As you know the virus is Dead. But it does take 2-3 weeks for your body to build up the immunity. I get mine every year and have never had a serious bout. I guess I'm paranoid but I carry around a little bottle of that antibacterial stuff for quick wash-ups in public BR. IP: Logged

It's so very sad that Art and Ramona succumbed to "the BUG". They've been through so very much lately.....but isn't it great that Ian can now fill in? I had the same thing happen to me...no more shots!

I read once the shots are based on last years flu and the drug companys selling people on hype to make $$$. After all, they are not in business for their health. 🤖

Ontario this year had FREE flu shots all around. Kinda makes me wonder. I took the shot last year, but didn't bother this year. So far - so good. I 'm really happy that the government is so concerned we all stay healthy this winter .....uh huh...Well, so far - so good.

Get well soon Art & Ramona..

Anyone ever heard the song "I Heard Ramona Sing" by Frank Black ?
