Author	Topic: What stations will carry Art Bell?
chicagofan Buccaneer Posts: 74 From: Registered: Jan 2001	 posted 09 January 2001 05:05 AM profile edit quote Where can I get a list of stations that will carry all 5 hours of Art Bell? WLS-890AM dumped C2C and I've been listening to WTMJ-620AM in Milwaukee WI. I can't get them in too well, tho. I am wondering if WLS pickup C2C with Art Bell? Or will there be another local CHICAGO station picking up C2C? I spoke with the WLS sales dept and they didn't know....I guess I'll try to reach programming.... I went to: http://www.premiereradio.com but could not find any Station listing. I went to: http://216.216.113.78/cgi-bin/stations.pl?state=ZZ&submit=List which is the Coast to Coast AM Affiliates List on http://www.ArtBell.com BUT WLS is NOT carrying C2C!!!! Does that mean the list wasn't updated or did WLS re-up???? Someone HERE has got to know! :-)

It shows WTIC-1080 Hartford and WABC-770 NYC, but both of those stations have dropped the program. WTIC's program change was last fall I think. I would think stations are waiting for Art to actually return before they make any changes. IP: Logged

I'm hoping that they do pick up Art for the full five hours. But now that the time slots are filled, it's difficult to negotiate "bumping" someone. I suspect that this is the issue, something that will only be solved by a write-in campaign on Art's behalf. Shooter [This message has been edited by Shooter (edited 10 January 2001).] IP: Logged

I just received an email from Al Brouillette/WLS-890AM (See attachment below)

We are presently talking with Premiere, the syndication company who produces Art Bell. Although no contracts have yet been offered or signed, it is quite possible that Art will return to WLS. First word on Art's return will be posted on the WLS website.

I emailed Keith Rowland and received his reply. (See the attached email below).

I would think that this indicates a 99.99% chance that WLS will carry Art's program. I would still like to see confirmation from WLS tho.....

I missed it, too, the first time I read it.

If you look for the missing ">" you will see keith's 3-letter reply: WLS
