A little sophomoric, I'd say. Kinda like MY home page . Also, did anyone catch the 3830 information he has listed in the "Interact" section. Keith has listed "his" callsign as well. Did anybody know that he was part of the 3830 group? IP: Logged

I was trying to read the time of the webcam shot of the Jolly Roger on his flagpole....couldn't see it at all. Sure was great to see all the photos and read Ramona's articles....all in all, it's a very easy site to navigate. Keith did a good job.... ....as I'm counting down to the 'Today' interview!! Reminds me of the graphics used on the Enterprise NG. But hey, I think a game of Pong would look better than what was up for C2C.  IP: Logged

Yes, the webcam pic has changed. What a great face to see!
I saved a copy of the pirate flag, if anyone knows how to post it, I can email it...

Getting used to the new web page - quite striking really. Definitely different! I like it being different from every other web pages. Reminds me of our Forum - a unique opening page!

I do like the left hand groupings as they are easy to follow to link up to where I want to go.

Art's new website kinda reminds me of MSN's web page..navigates the same.. Color in the p2p being green is very hard on my eyes.. It's starts to blurr after awhile..

Of course I perfer reading here, much better color scheme, and it's our own ship, the great Fantastic.. But ya know we had to check it out.. It's Art's..

It's the content about Art's stories...

Maybe we should have a cut and paste day, pirates that we are..Hee,hee
