I base this on a comparison to Jeff Rense's webe site which is getting over 5 million hits per month and is carried by over 200 radio stations. In the press release dated 1/5/2001 it states that c2c is carried by over 430 stations. This doesn't include the stations that just have since decided to carry c2c. Having over TWICE the number of stations, and just about the same number of web site hits, it appears that c2c has an average of HALF of the listeners (per station) as Jeff Rense. WOW! no wonder stations were dropping c2c in droves! I wonder if even Art will be able to ever re-cover all of those "lost" listeners. I guess time will tell. I'll be keeping an eye on the numbers. It should be interesting! 🤖

Since Art is back, I'll be listening only to c2c.

Thanks Jeff 😊
