Eastern skies may provide some long shadows to Western shores; how religiously radical will it get with efforts for expansions hotly stated in lands of the holy ones? Something evil is coming this way, no doubt, and old lines scribed provide the clues where we will be taken, with too much belief in archane notions, I feel. Atavistic tendencies will rise, territorial imperatives will find millions of wagging tongues shouting for holy vengeance, and the meek will not inherit the Earth but in death....as ancient zenophobic tribal animosities are being revived, it is in the air, the selfish attitudes revealing. Ninerism

Linnea - don't think its called doldrums - think for me its called "this is the time of nasty earthquakes all over the world" drums. See I'm a bit sensitive to them - ok so I don't live anywhere near them - but what can I say.

I had a nice vacation - maybe I should just take a whole month off - get away from icy weather, snow, slick roads and just wallow in the sun being waited on hand and foot. maybe??

Happy Valentines Day everybody!  It's a beautiful day here where I live...finally, like the first day of Spring.

Yes, I think we should have a party for sure. Make that bonfire, bring your own snacks and drink, and let's have some music.

Spike, I knew you were a vintage hippy too...! About that grass herb skirt, yeah...keep away from the flames, or we'll have a streakin' Spike Mike. Remember streakers?!Whooooow!

I think some great times are coming. Spring is almost here, and Art is on the air...and here we all together...gonna havin' a grand time in the days ahead!

I'm game for the bonfire! I'll go grab some potatoes and get some sticks! If I can ever get my darned computer to work steadily instead of in spits and spurts, I'll be there with bells on!!

It occurred to me this morning as I resisted getting out of bed that for the last two weeks I have had very little sleep. Been losing up to five hours a night getting hooked into Art's wonderful way with words and guests. So, for me, I guess I'm sleep deprived again and don't have much energy for posting during the day. Wouldn't be surprised if a lot of us are feeling the same way. In time, we'll get back to normal, whatever that is. 😊😊

I always made it for Halloween parties when my son was growing up. It is really very tasty and feeds a crew of hungry pirates.

It was a hot dog covered with chili and served in a soft roll. You could have other toppings put on too, but we never did. When you took a bite, the filling squirted all over, but that was the thrill of it. It was messy! Pete was an immigrant from Greece and had a full service restaurant with other Greek dishes, but we always had coney. The walls of his restaurant were decorated with beautiful religious icons and pictures and his numerous children were the servers. All beautiful brown-eyed youngsters. How I envied them working in a place that. I think that Mrs. Pete worked in the kitchen. It was a great place in the middle of bland Iowa.
