One ring to bring them all and in the darkness bind them
In the land of Mordor where the shadows lie."

I think that the font you are looking for is called... "Parchment".
I'm running Windows ME, and that particular font matches to my eye. Hope this helps.

Thanks, guys -
I am viewing it in MSE 5.5 - as is Shootzoo - but his is a garbled mess of text! HmMMMM?
Strange, very strange.....

Think I will change the font to something we can all see!

Well - I changed the font to the 'default' FP2000 font.

Can everyone read the 'one ring' text okay now?

PS: Shootzoo. Sorry it took me so long to get back to you! I was 'away' from 6-8pm

Thanks for all your responses 😊

Thanks for the feedback, Rapa 😊

Some of the fonts do not display in various browsers the same way.

Now we just need to get some middle-earthers in here posting.

Maybe we should send Bilbo Baggins and his Hobbit friends out to round them up?

One thing I do remember about The Lord of the Rings! The absolute pitch of Good vs Evil! A true Epic.

When I read the books, many years ago - the books were so dramatic and compelling and frightening - that I was totally enrapt!

Soon - I will begin re-reading LOTR - and I am wondering what my reaction will be this time?

Have I grown more wise - or more jaded - in my view of life and its mysteries? That is one of the reasons that I hesitate to read the trilogy again. I am afraid that I will bring too much to it the second time around...

Linnea, I am as cynical as they come and believe me, These books will weave their gentle, exciting, magical, web around the pains of the day and pretty soon, you'll be deep within "Middle Earth" leaving this world behind. No matter how many times ya read it, it's still new.

Thanks, Lutefisk -

That helps with some of my anxieties oer reading it all again. It really has been so many years. Maybe I will enjoy it all the more now.

I'm taking my time...
savoring each page...
trying to keep all the names straight in my mind...
It's much simpler than I've remembered it to be...(surprising to me)...but I'm going at it ...so slow...I'm afraid ... everyone will have finished.. long before me. ☹

I'm at the counsel of elders...where Frodo reunites with Bilbo.... (I LOVE GoldBerry..!)..and Frodo has just decided (?)..to take the ring on to destroy it..... (...I LOVE THIS BOOK...!)

Hi kids,

I too was captivated by LOTR. Reading it was almost an obsession.

If you enjoyed LOTR, check into "The Chronicles of Narnia". Another excellent fantasy series of Good vs Evil. Between these two series, you will get nothing accomplished until you finish reading! Just ask my wife.
