It just came across on CNN that Maureen Reagan has died from cancer. Her father, Ronald, will not be able to comprehend this, or even remember who she was, but she'll be there to greet him when he passes and has all his faculties restored.

Too bad.
A real nice woman.
I am sure her family will miss her - including Nancy Reagan
-and how sad really, her father probably does not realize she is gone.

Tragic afflictions -

My sympathies to the families.

I mean, I'm not aware of her ever being a whiney-whiney, "Oh it's so unfair, this Boy's Club called Politics". As far as I could see, she just rolled up her sleeves and did the job. > I would have voted for her! I believe she's still alive. I have the greatest sympathy for her. It's very sad when parents outlive a child, no matter their ages.... IP: Logged
