And neither did the shot of me, my bicycle, and my ship in the background. I was using a borrowed camera, and the timer somehow made the shot blurry. I have one extra roll of film I plan to shoot this weekend (doing speaker repair), and then I will label all the photos, and send them to Linnea. She will take them & do something kewl. Much more than I could. SpikeMike* ~Newsmonger IP: Logged
